

Chinyere Chidera Okechukwu

ACA, CISA, MBA | PhD Researcher | Principal Investigator

Professional Profile

Interdisciplinary researcher and finance professional working at the intersection of ESG, sustainability reporting, Information and Knowledge Management, responsible Artificial Intelligence, corporate governance and systems thinking.

Current Academic Role

PhD Researcher and Teaching Assistant, University of Hradec Kralove. Principal Investigator of the SPEV Research Grant 2026 at the Faculty of Informatics and Management.

Research Focus

Sustainability reporting and ESG governance; knowledge management in multinational organisations; responsible AI; information quality; corporate disclosure; sustainability analytics; systems thinking and digital ethics.

Professional Expertise

Financial reporting, audit, internal controls, record-to-report processes, IFRS compliance, ESG analysis and data-informed organisational decision support.

Selected Recognition & Engagement

Recipient of the Margaret Mead Memorial Award (International Society for the Systems Sciences, 2026). Research presented at WorldCIST, Hradec Economic Days, Liberec Economic Forum, DIVAI, the International Society for the Systems Sciences and the Ethics in the 21st Century International Scientific Conference.

This starter academic CV is generated from the public portfolio record. Replace it with the owner-approved full CV before external applications.